R. Duncan Is Named V.F.W. County Head

Members of Leland Bergesen Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, learned Tuesday night that R. Duncan, past commander, has been elected by the County council of the organization to the position of County commander. Duncan has just completed an outstanding term as head of the local group.

During the meeting the Post also appointed Duncan to serve as adjutant during the absence of H. Ham who has been transferred until April. The session also witnessed the admission of George W. Voehatzer and Roy C. Thomas on transfers from other Posts.

Commander F. F. Hayhurst announced that nearly all reservations for the New Year's eve party have been taken and that the affair promises to be one of the most successful ever put on here.

Formation of a firing squad is now under way by Ham and Thomas, it is said. The group will be available to all veterans' organizations.

Among the speakers of the evening were Mayor O. C. Yenne and A. L. Ford.

On adjournment, members and guests enjoyed refreshments that were served in the banquet hall by the following members of the Auxiliary: Mrs. Winifred Hayhurst, Mrs. Theresa Ham, Mrs. Olga Thomas and Mrs. Olive Blair.

Alameda Man Faces Trial

A plea of not guilty to the charge of hit-run driving was entered Tuesday morning in Police Court by Emile A. Collins, 33, of 1821 Encinal Avenue, Alameda. Judge Louis J. Hardie ordered trial set for next Tuesday morning.

Collins was arrested after allegedly crashing into a parked car belonging to Lloyd Beck, 2235 Durant Avenue, Berkeley. He is said by Officer Stanley Williams, who made the arrest, to have hit the auto and driven off without stopping. The policeman was passing on Marin Avenue at the time of the accident and caught the Alameda man several blocks away.

A $50 fine was levied against George A. Stitt, 60, of 1408 Acton Street, Berkeley, following his guilty plea to reckless driving. He was driving erratically on San Pablo Avenue on December 4, according to the complaint signed by Officer John Viarengo, who also brought out the fact that the man had apparently been drinking.

Vagrancy Plea Brings 90 Days

Charged with vagrancy, David Gold, 40, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve 90 days in the County Jail, Tuesday morning. Records show that the man has served terms in two State penitentiaries.

He was arrested on December 13 as a burglary suspect when police were informed that someone was trying to enter the home of B. A. Vance, 905 Neilson Street. Questioned by Sergeant Charles Hardie and Officer Frank Davis, Gold claimed his innocence and maintained that he was "passing through" Albany.

The lesser charge was brought at the suggestion of F. Kennedy Jackson, deputy district attorney.

Local Man Injured

While crossing the street and San Pablo and Solano Avenues early this morning Mr. H. Addikson of 126 Dartmouth street was badly cut and bruised when knocked down by a hit run driver. The car was a Chevrolet, two-door sedan which sped away. Officer Stanley Williams, who arrived at the scene of the accident immediately has parts of the hit and run car and expects to have the driver of the car soon. Mr. Addikson was removed to Humboldt Hospital by the Ace Ambulance Co.

7-Pound Girl Is Early Christmas Gift to Couple

Beating Santa Claus by a margin of two days, a seven-pound baby girl arrived at Humboldt Hospital at 7 o'clock yesterday morning to become the first and finest Christmas present in the Herbert Johnson household.

Mrs. Johnson, according to word from Dr. Jane Paxson, is "doing nicely." Papa "Pete" Johnson, local attorney, is said to be passing out the cigars on sight to his many friends in Albany and Berkeley.

The new arrival is the first child in the Johnson home and is the grandchild of Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, local realtor and president of the Chamber of Commerce. The good news was also joyously received by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Hutchins, maternal grandparents, of Oroville, who are spending the holidays at the local home.

The baby is also the great-grandchild of Mrs. J. H. Senger, widow of the late Professor Senger of the University of California.

Groups Trim Hospital at Livermore

Holiday decorations at the Veterans' Hospital in Livermore were put up Sunday by members of the Posts and Auxiliaries, American Legion, of the tenth district, reports the Albany delegation which took an active part.

Twenty-seven members of Albany Post and Auxiliary No. 292 made the trip, it is reported by Frank Graeber, the Post's decorating committee chairman. This was the largest group of representatives present, Graeber said. He has served in the same capacity for the past 10 years.

On behalf of the Post, Earl Hodgkins presented several cartons of cigarettes to patients in the wards assigned the local groups. After the work was completed a tour of the hospital was made.

Albany people present were: Commander Ammon Cook and Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graeber, Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams, Mr. and Mrs. James Sartin, the latter president of Albany Auxiliary; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fay, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bench, Mrs. Luella Houser, Mrs. A. L. Ford, Mrs. Elsie Inman, Mrs. Maude Hennigan, George Foley, Earl Hodgkins, L. B. Turnbull and August Kissner. The group was also aided by William Brown and W. G. Lambert.

Drivers Urged To Be Careful

In a Christmas message to the drivers of the City, the Albany Traffic Safety Commission presents the earnest plea that extra caution be exercised during the holiday season.

"During the heavy traffic of the coming season, we urge that all motorists be extra careful," tells the announcement. "This time of the year is always marked by heavy casualties and fatalities. Drive with care and prevent tragedy from marring your holidays."

The notice was sent out by Mrs. Lela J. Brunstein, secretary of the group, at the request of President A. L. Ford.

Mass Planned on Christmas Morn

Christmas day will be observed at the St. Ambrose Church by a solemn high mass to be celebrated by Rev. J. J. Hennessey at 6 o'clock in the morning.

"Missa Solennes" by Turton will be sung by the choir. The quartet is composed of Miss Anita Casey, Mrs. W. G. Orton, Edmund Richards and Stanley Holmes. They will be accompanied by Mrs. W. E. Murphy, organist.

Later masses will be held at 7, 8, 10 and 11 o'clock.

Stolen Light Is Recovered

Albany's stolen light has been found! The large floodlight that mysteriously disappeared from the base of the Christmas tree at Solano and Santa Fe Avenues last week, was found lighting up a residence at 843 Washington Avenue, early Wednesday morning.

First trace of the light, missing since the heavy fog last Thursday night, was found by Fire Chief Carl Ahlgren. The official was driving westward on Solano Avenue when he saw an unfamiliar reddish glare on Albany Hill. Thinking it was a fire, he sped to the scene, only to discover that the light was emitting all the illumination.

He returned with Sergeant Charles Hardie and Officer John Viarengo and awakened the residents, Mr. and Mrs. Wells A. Webb, both of whom were startled by the presence of the light in their yard. It was not there when they retired, they affirmed.

Someone, it was seen, had connected the floodlight to the electric meter so that its rays would cover the front of the house. It was disconnected and taken to the firehouse for safe-keeping.

Albany Bows To Reds, 7-3

The Albany Merchants bowed in defeat Sunday to the fast Orinda Reds, final score being 7-3. The contest showed what was apparently a let-down on the part of the locals after their thrilling session with St. Mary's a short time ago.

Vigre started for the Merchants, was replaced by Archart after a wild streak during which he hit four batters. Archart pitched good ball until the eighth when Bill Swift, Orinda catcher, hit a home run with two on, his second of the game.

Swanstrom and Huston of Albany also were credited with circuit clouts while their team mate, G. Caruso, earned two hits. Good performances were turned in by Bobby Nora at third and by Kiley at short.

Next Sunday the Merchants will play the Mickey's Inn nine at University Park. The visitors have a strong outfit that numbers several professionals in the line-up such as Vince Monzo, Neil Clifford, Eddie Fernandez and Al Raimondi.

This will be the last game of the first half in the Berkeley City League. Manager Jake Nora is reported as quite proud of his team that finished second and nearly beat St. Mary's, head of the league. He announces that he will strengthen the squad for the second half and will be out to capture the championship.

Theater Books Double Program For Christmas

In a gala holiday show for its patrons, the Albany Theatre is now offering two features. The first is the latest picture of Sonja Henie, "Thin Ice," with a supporting cast of outstanding stars.

The second film presents the lovable Will Rogers in one of his biggest successes, "Harum Scarum." Once again he is seen in the realistic portrayal of the type of character he preferred.

Late news releases and short subjects complete the current bill. A matinee is scheduled at 1:30 p.m. Christmas day.

Sunday and Monday the theater will show Lyle Talbot and Polly Rowles in "Westbound Limited" and Bobbie Breen in "Make a Wish."

Mayor O. C. Yenne is actively participating in the organization of the East Bay Municipal Executives Association, a group expected to prove highly useful in dealing with problems affecting East Bay cities.

COUNTY V.F.W. HEAD

R. Duncan, past commander of Leland Bergesen Post No. 2658, V.F.W., who was named County commander.

Yule Service Is Scheduled For Tonight

Conducted by Rev. O. R. Janke, the children's Christmas Service of Grace Lutheran Church will be presented this evening at 7 o'clock, in the large auditorium of the Veterans Memorial Building.

The extensive program will include a number of colorful features, it is announced. Several recitations, carols and tableaux are to be offered. The junior division of the Sunday School will sing "Noel" and the old German chorale, "From Heaven to Earth I Come," will be given by Richard Herr, boy soprano. The primary department is to be heard in two songs, "In a Lowly Manger" and "God's Love Eternal."

Rev. Janke will speak on "The Colors of Christmas." Gifts will be distributed at the conclusion of the service.

Radio Program To Feature City

The innumerable advantages of Albany as a home city will be told the nation via KSEO on January 6 at 8 p. m., word from the Chamber of Commerce discloses. At that time the "Scattergood Baines" program of the Wrigley Company will be dedicated to this city.

Albany was selected by the company along with Oakland, Berkeley and San Leandro to be so recognized, proudly tells the civic organization.

Teacher Honored By Farewell Tea

A farewell tea for Mrs. Emma Newland, who has conducted millinery classes at Cornell School, was given last Tuesday by members of her class. Mrs. Newland will soon become the bride of George Chester, superintendent of schools at Redondo Beach.

Lofty Cross Is Destroyed By Vandals

"The members of the Chamber of Commerce don't feel justified in spending money simply to provide a target for vandals." With this blunt statement Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, president of the civic group announced the huge cross on top of Albany Hill would be immediately discontinued.

The chamber has already spent more than $30 for globes and sockets on the illuminated cross which was visible for miles and has brought much favorable comment since it was constructed. Nearly 100 bulbs were wantonly broken during the past week-end, it is reported by Police Sergeant Charles Hardie.

Despite continual vigilance on the part of the police, the destruction occurred. Monday an officer was stationed nearby to watch for boys with air rifles, suspected of the vandalism, but none appeared. Late that evening Sergeant Hardie found almost 50 of the lights destroyed.

On Wednesday afternoon a 14-year-old boy was caught on the hill hurling objects at the cross. He has been taken to the Detention Home and will probably be released on probation, it is said. The boy was seen by Fire Chief Carl Ahlgren from the window at the firehouse.

Asked if the cross would be erected for Easter, Mrs. Raymond said she couldn't tell. "If it is, however, you may be sure that we'll have a guard stationed near it both night and day. The expense of this would be justifiable if the guilty person or persons were caught."

Steps Taken By City for Development

Rezone Western Part To Induce Home Building

Pointing to the future development of the western part of the City for home-sites, the City Council took final action Monday night to rezone a total of 50 acres between Albany Hill and the waterfront.

Three entire blocks, bounded by Buchanan, Hayes and Pierce Streets and Cleveland Avenue were changed to second residential, as were portions of three other blocks to the north. Re-classification of a triangular strip of property on the east side of the East Shore Highway to first residential was also approved.

The group also authorized rezoning of property west of the highway to permit only light industries to locate there. Principally concerned by the changes are the large holdings of the Du Pont de Nemours and West Coast Manufacturing Companies.

Completion of the Portland Avenue storm sewer project, was announced in a report from H. I. Dygert, City Engineer, who declared that a considerable saving had been effected. Total cost was given as $10,138, of which Berkeley paid about $3000.

An offer of the Chamber of Commerce of $5 toward a plaque for the best outdoor Christmas tree, was refused with the explanation that certificates of award are to be given in the contest which was announced last week by the councilmen as individuals.

Permission of an advertising company to erect a billboard at Solano and Stannage Avenues was turned down when it was brought out that the firm had already erected the sign before filing an application.

Merry Christmas

It is our sincere wish that you are as happy this Christmas as we are. In looking retrospectively over the months since we regretfully threw away last year's Christmas tree because the needles just wouldn't cling to it any longer, we're glad we didn't throw away our real, earnest love for peace on earth and good will toward men with it.

Many places exist in the world, in far off corners, where people have not been inspired, exactly, by the eternal spirit of Christmas, and when we see what's happened there, we're more than a little thankful that they are far off. Maybe we've had troubles, too, during the past year, but darned if we don't somehow find it hard to remember just what they were, with Christmas carols ringing in our ears and the warm spiritual glow melting all the meanness out of us. We're content just to go on doing our job, trying to print an honest, friendly and interesting newspaper that fulfills its mission of service in Albany.

Meanwhile, we're determined to remember our lot will always be this happy if we keep alive the love and fellowship and humility of Christmas until December 25 rolls around again. It's a cheerful feeling; may you feel it, too. A very Merry Christmas to you!

Fete Is Given At St. Ambrose

"Little Maids of Bethlehem" was sung by a group of little girls in blue frocks trimmed with silver stars at the recent Christmas party held at St. Ambrose Church under the direction of the Sisters of the Holy Family.

Jack Ortland was master of ceremonies. Others appearing on the program were Mrs. Grace Wuelzer who sang Gounod's "Ave Maria" accompanied by Mrs. Agnes E. Dickson; Bill Dickson, who played a violin solo, and Beverly Jeanne Wuelzer, who gave several dramatic recitations. Jack O'Leary, Jr., acting as Santa Claus, distributed gifts at the end of the entertainment.

N.D.G.W. Members Observe Holiday

Jingle bells, Santa Claus and good fellowship all proclaimed the spirit of Christmas at the party given by Albany Parlor No. 260, N. D. G. W. presented at the Maccabee Temple last Wednesday evening for members and their children.

Mrs. Hazlett Taylor, outgoing president, remembered all the members with gifts and the entertainment program was arranged by Mrs. Nellie Graham. Mrs. May Ellis was tea hostess.

RECREATION

Superior team work and speed accounted for the 29-25 win of the Marvin Waltons over their heavier and much taller opponents, the Harold Kronkes, in the first game of the Recreation Leaders Basketball League, played this week on the basketball court of the Albany Y.M.C.A.

The slim margin of victory for the Waltons in the hard fought saw game, was credited to their effective use of bounce passes and their speedy handling of the ball. Although nosed out in their first attempt in league competition, the Kronkes give promise of being a threat to the remaining teams in the circuit, as the game on the "Y" court was the first time the boys had played together, while their opponents went into the game with three practice sessions behind them.

The remaining three games of the first round of the schedule will be played tomorrow morning and afternoon.

So that members of the Albany Recreation Department and its Federal Recreation Project may be able to enjoy Christmas and New Years Day with their families this year, heads of the department have decided to close down completely the activities of the department. The decision received as especially welcome from the recreation leaders who have charge of the three parks, as in the past they have been forced to carry on their work every Sunday and holiday throughout the year.

The parks will be open to the public as usual although the use of athletic equipment will not be available.

Forty members of the Pre-school Play Center Mothers' Club helped Santa Claus bring Yule-tide joy to the sixty tiny tots who attend the school, Wednesday morning in the new school building, Masonic and Solano Avenue.

Santa, who bore a strange resemblance to Mrs. Walter Blackburn, one of the mothers of the Club, was on hand to distribute candy to the youngsters, and to make a mental note of what toys he was told to pack in his bag for his return trip to Albany Christmas morning.

An eight-foot tree was decorated for the party by the play school leaders before the children arrived.

Recreation leaders of the basketball team entered in the Works Progress Administration inter-recreation project basketball league meet the team of another former co-worker tonight when they engage the Parochial School entry on the Y.M.C.A. basketball court.

Ray Brennan, supervisor of the Parochial School team, and former leader at Memorial Park, brings a strong outfit to Albany to do battle with the local squad.

If the same keen feeling of friendly rivalry prevails in this contest that was witnessed when the Albany team engaged another former co-worker, a hectic battle is in store for spectators.

Early this week the Albany unit advanced another notch in completion of the league schedule when they lost to the Richmond team by the score of 29-14.

Every Christmas season during recent years The Truman Co. has had a beautifully decorated and lighted Christmas tree in its garden. But this year their decoration has been supplanted by an inspiring reproduction of the Manger Scene of the birth of Christ. Hundreds of people have gathered each evening to view the sacred scene which so faithfully exemplifies the true meaning of Christmas. The tableau is being displayed in the garden of The Truman Co., Funeral Directors, Telegraph Avenue at 30th Street, Oakland, every evening including December 26.

Life-size Production
The scene is a beautifully colored-life size replica of the Manger

Scene of the Birth of Christ. The principals portrayed are Joseph, Mary, the Mother of Christ, and the babe lying in the manger. Shepherds are in the foreground, the three wisemen in the background.

Original Idea
An original idea of Lloyd H. Truman, Executive Vice-President of the concern, first suggested to him by the beautiful pictures in the religious calendars which the firm has supplied to the public for many years.

Painted Figures Create Effect
After much research and upon the advice of experts, painted figures were decided upon rather than actual models. In this way the colors are brought out to the best advantage by artificial lighting, all disturbing shadows of feature and form being eliminated.

Star of Bethlehem
A powerful carbon light is employed to send its beam into the heavens to represent the Star of Bethlehem shining down upon the manger. Many of the hundreds who have come followed the light in the heavens just as the shepherds did so long ago.

Sacred Scene—Not a Spectacle
It should be emphasized that this portrayal is in no sense meant to be merely a spectacle, but rather a sacred scene which enhances the true Christmas spirit.

ELECTRICAL GIFTS!

Gifts with a Jingle of Joy!

Coffee Maker—Ah, the aroma of perfect coffee, every time. Smart looking.

Automatic Toaster—No burnt fingers. No burnt toast. Always golden-brown perfection.

Food Server—Three smart glass casseroles keep food hot for "nibble table" meals.

Electric Razor—Ends all shaving muck in the bathroom and sweetens male dispositions.

ISN'T it a grand and glorious feeling to know your gift has been just right? For after all, most of the fun of giving is how well your gift becomes a part of that spirit that makes Christmas the happiest time of all the year.

Electric table appliances truly become part of the holiday spirit. From Christmas to New Year's they are immediately useful for the informal parties that are so much a part of the holiday season.

Holiday parties are fun—even for the hostess—when done electrically, in the modern manner, buffet style. The silent, effortless and low-cost operation of modern electric table appliances make for easier entertaining and happier hostesses.

This year is an electrical gift year. You'll see electric table appliances displayed in all the stores. Make your Christmas gift hunting easier. Buy an electrical gift.

The Modern Santa Claus

Rebekahs Hold Christmas Party

Toys, candy and fruit were presented to 41 children at a Christmas party given by Campus Rebekah Lodge No. 331 last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Alma Mortimer, 1600 Dwight Way, Berkeley.

Miss Freda Mortimer played the role of Santa Claus and a pleasant afternoon was spent singing Christmas carols and playing games.

A brief business meeting of the lodge will be held on Christmas Eve at 1837 Alcatraz Avenue.

Plans to simplify the present setback ordinance were announced Monday night by the City Council.

Groups to Give Baskets of Food

Carols will be sung and baskets distributed by members of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 87, and the University Chapter of DeMolay on Christmas morning, it was recently announced by Miss Florence Glenn.

The two lodges celebrated a yuletide party and dance at Cordornies Hall last Saturday evening.

The next meeting of Job's Daughters will be on Saturday afternoon, January 8, at 2 o'clock at the Thousand Oaks Masonic Temple.

COUNCIL GETS POUND REPORT

censes was formerly $2 and $3.
They now cost $1.50 a year. Total issued this fiscal year is reported as 409.

This is the report accepted by a 3-2 vote of the City Council last Monday night:

"The Berkeley Humane Society was hired by the City to act as poundmaster and enforce all dog ordinances from August, 1935 to May, 1936.

"During the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1935, and ending June 30, 1936, it cost the City $5.00 (more or less) per dog licensed to enforce the dog ordinance. In other words—94 licenses were issued, and for this $174.50 was collected as license fees.

"The Berkeley Society received from the general fund of the City $567.00 to enforce our ordinances.

"To compare the costs to the City during the following year, after the Berkeley Society was discharged, we find that it cost the City $1.00 (more or less) per dog licensed to enforce the dog ordinances. In other words, 423 dogs were licensed and for this $545.75 was collected as license fees. The poundman, Mr. Peters received a salary of $572.50, and the City expended a total of $869.71 in constructing a dog pound ($82.89 of which was paid out in the last month of the fiscal year of 1935-36). Considering that the dog pound has an estimated life of ten years, and that the cost of same is $86.97 per year, we compute 1-10 of the cost of construction of the pound as part of costs of operating the pound. The total cost of shelter, gas, oil, food, etc., was $1079.76.

"We find also, that during the year 1936-37, Mr. Peters caused to be collected the sum of $224.15 as fines for impounding of dogs and other services rendered, as provided for in our dog ordinances;
but that during the prior year, when the Berkeley Society operated our pound in Berkeley, this association did not turn into the Treasury of the City a single cent for these fines, although dogs were picked up and taken to Berkeley and later released to their owners, and although the ordinances provided that a keeping charge must be collected by the person acting as poundmaster.

"By comparing the experience of this City with the Berkeley Society and with our present pound-master Mr. Peters, we find the administration of Mr. Peters much more favorable, and see no reason to change again to the Berkeley Society, and it is our report and recommendation that we continue the administration of our dog ordinances under our present arrangement."

Said Councilman Hays in support of his and Councilman Mowday's stand on the matter:

"The figures offered by the majority group are not a fair basis of comparison. When the Berkeley Humane Society handled the pound duties for the former council, a more lenient attitude on enforcement of the dog laws was in effect. The society was never given the opportunity of operating under the present set-up.

"We'd be getting a whole lot more for our money if we accepted their offer to do the work for $100 a month. Present cost, including maintenance of the pound, truck maintenance, food and salary, amounts to about $150 per month.

"We have been offered seven days a week, 24-hour service and the assurance that a City-wide educational campaign would be conducted among children and adults.
The Humane Society would also be able to handle the work with considerably less friction than is now being exhibited.

"I was appointed both times to get facts and figures on letting the Berkeley Humane Society take over the pound duties in Albany and I want it clearly understood that neither time did they come seeking the job!"
